What is Victory Really Like?

The dust is still settling from November 6, 2018—Election Day. The final day for counting mail-in and provisional ballots was November 20. A few Illinois races were yet to be decided. Overall, however, nearly all the candidates IFT endorsed were victorious. To see the results, go to <https://www.ift-aft.org/vote/candidates>. For the endorsed candidates who didn't win, we appreciate the sacrifices you made to run for public office.

These are some Illinois specific statistics from the JB for Governor campaign.

- We saw the highest voter turnout since 1990.
- This year was the first time Peoria County went blue in a gubernatorial election since 1968, Champaign County since 1936, DuPage County since 1932, and Kane County, since 1912!
- This was the lowest vote share for any incumbent Illinois governor in the last century.

Because we demanded an agenda prioritizing working family issues and not the current agenda where public schools were defunded and destabilized, healthcare and workers' rights were diminished and wealthy corporations were favored over those of workers, this election saw a transformation at the federal level as well. There will be a US House with 104+ new members meaning 25 percent of Congress will be new. More than 100 women were elected to the US House in 2018, the largest class of female lawmakers ever. Two US House elections in Illinois were significant because the new members of Congress overturned seats held for 10+ years in mostly Republican districts. We are happy to be able to work with two AFT/IFT endorsed candidates, Sean Casten, Congressional District 6 and Lauren Underwood, Congressional District 14. Both will be sworn into office on January 3, 2019.

Congratulations!

End Of An Era

The Blackhawks and the Bears each have a new coach. The era of Coach Q as well as the era of John Fox are a thing of the past. As of January 1st, the front office of Local 571 will also enter a new era.

Judy Jennings is retiring after 41 years of managing the office for the West Suburban Teachers Union. Not only has she been the office manager, Judy has also been the heart and soul with her welcoming smile, pleasant way of greeting people and willingness to drop what she's doing to take on whatever she's asked to do.

In 1996, Judy was hired by the IFT where she was asked to assist in developing the AFT membership program. Although she was then on the IFT payroll, Judy was assigned to the Local 571 office where she prepared for conventions, organized elections, distributed scholarship information, developed a membership guide and trained on the new computer programs which came her way. Judy did all of this and more while handling ticket sales, managing the office and tending to the needs of the field staff and WSTU officers. For many years Judy was a one-woman show!

Judy will now join the ranks of the retirees, a group for which she once planned all sorts of activities. Judy will have time to enjoy more time with her husband, children, and grandchildren. And don't forget the pets.

The Judy Jennings era is coming to an end. Her last day is December 31. Only then will we truly realize how much Judy meant to us. We are grateful for the years she gave to WSTU, Local 571.

We wish Judy the happiness she deserves and many enjoyable years of retirement.

November 2018 sure feels better than November 2016. In the past two years, we worked to harness energy and passion, working together as a fighting force for public policy change. For this, we should be proud.

We welcome the opportunity to work with all the newly elected and current members of both the Illinois legislature and Congress. Victory is fleeting unless we remind all our elected officials that we support public education with sustained and equitable funding, quality healthcare and economic opportunity for all Americans, not just the wealthy.

From the Local 571 officers and staff, enjoy the holidays with family and friends. 2019 will be the year of change, hopefully positive, with your continued support.

In unity,

Local 571 President

Resources to Help Us Serve our Immigrant and Refugee Students

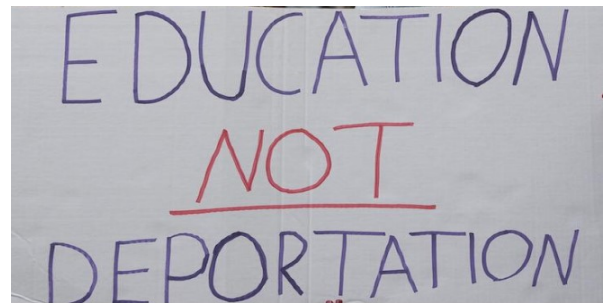

By Bonnie Saracco

Federal law requires equal access to elementary and secondary public education for all children and adolescents residing in the United States. Therefore we have many students in our classrooms who are struggling with their immigration status, and we need special supports to help them. Title I and Title II funding may be used for this purpose, and there are other resources available, including three very useful websites produced by AFT.

Share My Lesson at <https://sharemylesson.com/immigration>, has many lesson plans and resources designed to support the psychological and health needs of these students. Many of these resources teach all students about immigration and help to create inclusive school cultures.

Colorin Colorado is AFT's website with resources for teachers of English language learners from all language backgrounds. Colorin Colorado contains lessons that address the concerns of our students who are immigrants or children of immigrants. These specific resources can be found at <http://www.colorincolorado.org/>.

AFT also has materials designed to educate our students about human rights abuses throughout the globe. The platform www.teachhumanrights.com has lesson plans about contemporary human rights violations and their historical roots.

In addition to these AFT websites, the Southern Poverty Law Center founded Teaching Tolerance, a program aimed at reducing prejudice and fostering empathy for students in the United States and Canada. Its free educational materials can be found at www.tolerance.org.

For many immigrant students and their families, the most pressing need is for the services of an attorney. This is especially true for the families of the over 100,000 children who have recently fled the violence in Central America. These families and children are not supplied with attorneys, and more than 80% of them lack legal counsel. Only one in ten of those without legal counsel will win their cases. Having an attorney increases their chance of qualifying for continued residency in the United States by four times.

An attorney can argue in court for these immigrants to qualify for asylum, T visas, U visas, or Special Immigrant Juvenile Status. Asylum is a form of international protection for refugees in the United States who have been persecuted on the basis of race, religion, nationality, political opinion, or membership in a particular social group. T visas can be granted to people who have been victims of human trafficking. U visas are available to crime victims who have suffered significant abuse and who are cooperating with law enforcement in the prosecution of the crime. Special Immigrant Juvenile Status is humanitarian relief for noncitizen minors who have suffered abuse, neglect, or abandonment by one or both of their parents.

Schools can direct students to legal aid organizations for immigrants. The U.S. Department of Justice has a directory of free legal service providers by state at www.justice.gov/eoir/list-pro-bono-legal-service-providers-map. Other helpful legal aid organizations for our undocumented students are Kids in Need of Defense, Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service, The Young Center for Immigrant Children's Rights, and The Catholic Legal Immigration Network. AFT has an extensive list of helpful websites at <https://www.aft.org/immigration-ice-raids-resources-educators-and-advocates>.

80th Anniversary

On Friday, November 9, 2018, just days after many exciting election victories, Local 571, West Suburban Teachers Union, celebrated its 80th Anniversary. President, Jane Russell hosted the event and welcomed members of all ages to an evening of memories and celebration.

Uncle Bub's catered the dinner and a LIVE musical performance was provided by James, Karl and Josh Scholl. Members took the opportunity to give tribute to Judy Jennings who will be retiring this December after a long and eventful career of service. At the end of the evening, a raffle was held and the Scholl family singers, led the guests in a crowd pleasing medley of union songs.

Thanks to the officers and 80th Anniversary Celebration Committee members for their work in planning and working at the event. Food, music, prizes, and socializing, were all the ingredients for a wonderful evening.

Happy 80th Anniversary Local 571 !

The original charter from the American Federation of Teachers hangs in the 571 library. West Suburban Teachers Union was chartered May 18, 1938.

James Scholl, a retiree from the Rosemont Council, and his sons garnered group participation in the union songs sing-along.

Judy Jennings says thanks and goodbye to the many friends and colleagues wishing her well in retirement.

80th Anniversary celebration co-chair Cathy Pope, enjoys fellowship with retiree Christa Leyendecker.

The crowd of current members and retirees enjoyed the company and renewed old friendships.
